Sheet 2 -- Imprisonment

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of: 17 MONTHS as to Count 2.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons designate the defendant to FCI Talladega or Jesup FCI to facilitate family visitation, if consistent with security and classification considerations.

The Court directs that the Bureau of Prisons award all custody credit to which the defendant may be entitled under statute.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshals Service.

Judgment in a Criminal Case
Sheet 3 -- Supervised Release

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: THREE (3) YEARS as to Count 2.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

You must comply with the mandatory conditions of release:

1. You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court.
4. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court as well as with any other conditions on the attached pages.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov

I understand that a violation of any of these conditions of supervised release may result in modification, extension, or revocation of my term of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following special conditions of supervision.

1. You must not use or possess alcohol.
2. You must participate in an alcohol and/or other substance abuse treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program. You must pay all or part of the costs of the program based on your ability to pay unless excused by the probation officer.
3. You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. You must not obstruct, attempt to obstruct, or tamper with any testing methods. You must pay all or part of the costs of testing based on your ability to pay unless excused by the probation officer.
4. You must not use or possess any controlled substances without a valid prescription. If you have a valid prescription, you must disclose the prescription information to the probation officer and follow the instructions on the prescription.
5. You must participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. Such program may require that you submit to an evaluation and / or testing. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program. You must pay all or part of the costs of the program based on your ability to pay unless excused by the probation officer. The court strongly encourages that you engage in dialectical behavior therapy (DBT) as a component of your mental health treatment.
6. You must take all mental health medication prescribed by your treating provider.
7. You must cooperate with the U.S. Probation Office in the monitoring of any computer system, Internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices to which you have access. Cooperation includes, but is not limited to, identifying computer systems, Internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) to which you have access and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices. You and/or your probation officer shall inform all parties that access a monitored computer or similar electronic device that the device is subject to search and monitoring. You must not remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or in any way circumvent installed software. You must provide passwords for said computer systems. If able, you must pay the cost of monitoring unless excused by the probation officer. Devices belonging to third party employers are exempt from these requirements.
